
Elizabeth A. Greenberg

Advisory Director, New York

Phone (908) 770- 4567

E-mail elizabeth.a.greenberg@pwc.com

Elizabeth Greenberg is a Director with PwC's Financial Services People & Organization practice in New York City.

She has 14 years of professional experience working on issues of strategic workforce planning, change management, communications strategy, organizational effectiveness, talent assessment, operating model design and implementation, training development and delivery, and program management in the financial services and non-profit sectors. Her work at PwC has included the alignment of business and talent strategy at the C-suite and functional level, design of analytical tools to inform executive decision making, and implementation of change programs to support business and digital transformation efforts. She also has been responsible for improving stakeholder and volunteer engagement, process improvement, and knowledge management.

Liz earned her MBA at the Yale School of Management, focused on strategy and organizational behavior, and graduated magna cum laude from Princeton University with an A.B. in history.
