Responsibilities

Hal is a partner in Aon's Retirement and Investment Business located in Norwalk, CT. His focus is primarily centered on pension de-risking strategies for corporate pension fund clients. Recent projects Hal has been working on include: designing a lump sum pension offering to former employees; re-evaluating a plan sponsor's asset allocation given a recent pension freeze; and analyzing a potential bulk annuity transfer for a subset of the company's pension plan.

Experience

Hal has over 20 years of experience in consulting and also worked at an investment bank to help create non-insurance based pension de-risking solutions. He is a Fellow of the Society of Actuaries and a CFA charterholder. He joined Aon in January, 2015.

Expertise

Hal has experience spanning across multiple industries including energy, big law, and retail. Hal leads Aon's effort in addressing the unique needs of law firms who sponsor defined benefit plans for the partnership.

Education

Hal earned a Bachelor of Science degree in Statistics and Actuarial Science from New Jersey Institute of Technology (NJIT).
